BISHOP RETURNS AFTER BUSY DAYS AT CONVENTION

According to Rt. Rev. Henry B. Restarick, bishop of St. Andrew's cathedral, who returned in the Maioa from a two months' trip on the mainland, one would think after a trip across the American continent that half of the people were on their way to the Paradise of the Pacific.

The bishop attended in October in St. Louis the triennial general convention of the Episcopal church. With him representing Hawaii were the Rev. J. Knox Bodel, John Guild and Reynolds H. McGrew, who returned recently, excepting Guild, who is in San Francisco with Mrs. Guild. Delegates to the triennial meeting of the woman's auxiliary, who also went to St. Louis and who are still on the mainland, were Miss Eva M. Stevens, now in New York; Miss Marie von Holt, in Oakland; Miss Edith McLeod, in Illinois, and Mrs. Guild, in San Francisco. About 700 delegates from many parts of the world attended.

Three important matters taken up by the convention were the publishing of a new hymnal, revising the prayer book and establishment of a church pension fund for the care of those who had grown old in the service. Over $3,000,000 has already been obtained for the latter purpose.

On both the Atlantic and Pacific coasts the bishop delivered several sermons but was unable to accept all invitations tendered him. In New York city he attended the 150th anniversary of St. Paul's chapel on Broadway in which 600 Sons of the Revolution participated and where the flag which preceded Gen. George Washington's visit to the chapel in 1789—just prior to his inauguration as the first president of the United States—was in evidence.

One Sunday the bishop delivered a sermon in Trinity church, the richest parish in the world, of which Rev. Dr. W. T. Manning, a protégé of the bishop, is now the pastor, and he also preached in the Cathedral of St. John the Divine. While in New York Bishop Restarick visited with Dr. and Mrs. Paul Withington. The latter, his daughter, was Constance Restarick of Honolulu.

"Good, Isn't It, Grandpa?"

"Yes, Sonny, Postum is good, and much better for you than coffee—you'll know why, sometime. In fact, children should never drink coffee or tea—and most grown-ups would be better off without either."

"In coffee and tea there's a drug that is harmful, especially for children, and it often causes troublesome conditions in older folks."

is fine for both children and grown-ups. It is made from good wheat, roasted with a little wholesome molasses—nothing to hurt anyone.

There's a delightful flavor in Postum—the pure food-drink for those who want to be healthy and happy.
